Frequently Asked Questions

What is Discipleship Walk?

Christian discipleship is a continual process of the Holy Spirit transforming us into disciples of Jesus and calling to make a difference in the world around us.

The Discipleship Walk is a lay-led three-day weekend designed to give believers an opportunity to break from regular routines and experience the love of God in a fresh way.

The first full day speaks to God's call upon our lives.

The second day we focus on how to fulfill the call upon our lives, as well as come to a better understanding of Christ's love for us.

The third day is centered on going forward into the world from which we came just a few days before.

It is the intention of the Discipleship Walk to lead each person into a closer relationship with Christ where they might become more intentional and mature in their faith, so that each can make a difference for Christ in his or her own world.

Since its inception in 1989, over 10,000 people have attended Discipleship Walks in the nine different Discipleship Walk Communities around the United States. It is heavily patterned after the Walk to Emmaus, the Cursillo Movement, the Great Banquet, and other similar weekends across denominational lines.

What happens on a Discipleship Walk? There is no hiking involved! The weekend is highly structured and includes a series of talks, discussions, chapel times, prayer time, music, lots of food and fun. It has been described as a 'short course in Christianity' and many believers feel that this experience has renewed their walk with the Lord. If you would like to take your Christian walk to a deeper level or if you are experiencing a spiritual dryness, you will surely benefit from the Discipleship Walk.

Who is involved? Each weekend is led by a team of people who have already attended a weekend. The head leadership of each team is approved by the pastoral staff of the church they attend. The Walks each have their own governing board.

Who can attend? The Indy Northside Discipleship Walk is currently open to all believers.
